ROCKHAMPTON has officially been named the tidiest town in Queensland.

The central Queensland community outperformed 159 other entrants to claim the Ergon Energy Tidy Towns title.

Keep Australia Beautiful chairman Tor Hundloe said Rockhampton had moved far on environmental issues, also saving ratepayers' money.

He said the competition remained strong 40 years after it began.

Tourism Queensland's friendliest town award went to Mudgeeraba, on the Gold Coast hinterland and Australia Post's bush spirit award to Normanton in the Gulf of Carpentaria and Muttaborra in western Queensland.
