NATIONAL TIDY TOWNS JUDGE TO VISIT NEW NORFOLK

The Australian Tidy Towns judge, Dick Olesinski, will visit New Norfolk as part of his judging tour for the Keep Australia Beautiful Australian Tidy Towns Awards.

He will be available for media interviews / photos / vision as follows:

Where: Derwent Valley Railway, Station Street, New Norfolk

When: 10.15am TOMORROW (Tuesday 16 November)

Contact: Tasmanian judge Barrie Muir Tel: 0408 679 313

New Norfolk recently received the 2010 Tasmanian Tidy Towns Award, recognised as a "...valued and sustainable community town."

Mr Muir said: "New Norfolk provides a caring and attractive environment for its residents and visitors. It has a very strong Tidy Towns Committee that enjoys a positive relationship with the Derwent Valley Council. Importantly, the Chair has been extremely active in involving community groups in the committee's activities, which has produced encouraging results."
